 (DRSP) Classification Guidelines, dated November 19, 1981,
 (BYE 28578/81) and Attachment, Subject: DRSP Security
 Guidelines (BYE 28579/81)

The attached pages replace pages 3, 5, 6, 7, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18 and 19 of the DRSP Security Guidelines (BYE 28579/81). The original pages should be destroyed. These changes provide a new DSPO address, delete the Isuffix from the program element to allow basic classification instructions to apply to all 35159 suffixes, allow the DRSP Budget Estimate Submission to be unclassified (by program element or appropriation within program element), modify the title of MC&G Alternatives to MC&G Support and retitle Defense Reconnaissance Tactical Support Activity (DRTSA) as Intelligence Communications Architecture (INCA) to conform with Congressional direction, and correct minor typographical errors in Addendum 8.

F. Correspondence regarding DRSP will be BYEMAN or TK for "black" DRSP programs or activities and the appropriate DOD classification level for "white" programs or activities.

G. Correspondence regarding NRP related DRSP activities will be BYEMAN or TK and addressed to DNRO, Assistant Director for Military Support, Military Support Staff or NRO Staff, as appropriate. SCI correspondence regarding DRSP activities should be sent through SCI channels to the NRO using the following unclassified address:

SAF/SS
Pentagon, Room 4C1000
Washington, D.C. 20330

Organizations in the Washington, D.C. area serviced by the DIA or Air Force (AF/INSD) registries can send SCI correspondence directly to the DSPO by using the following unclassified address:

SAF/DSPO (DRSP)
Pentagon, BD-944
Washington, D.C. 20330

Non-SCI correspondence regarding DRSP activities should be addressed to:

SAF/DSPO (DRSP)
Pentagon, BD-944
Washington, D.C. 20330

H. The NRO Staff/SAFSS has no responsibility for non-BYEMAN programs. The NRO Staff does have responsibility for DRSP security policy, personnel and budget, but conducts these activities at a BYEMAN level.

I. The NRO Military Support Staff:

1. Exists only at a BYEMAN or TK level.
2. Corresponds on compartmented DRSP programs only at a BYEMAN/TK level.

III. PUBLIC AFFAIRS.

There will be no public releases or unclassified announcements or releases without the prior approval of the DNRO or his designated representative.

DEFENSE RECONNAISSANCE SUPPORT PROGRAM (DRSP)
CLASSIFICATION GUIDELINES

MAPPING, CHARTING AND GEODESY (MC&G) SUPPORT

REFERENCE: DNRO Memo, Subject: Defense Reconnaissance Support Program (DRSP) Classification Guidelines, dated November 19, 1981 (BYE 28578/81) and Attachment, Subject: DRSP Security Guidelines (BYE 28579/81)

This addendum provides supplemental classification guidance for the DRSP activity "Mapping, Charting and Geodesy Support." In those cases where the classification guidance provided in this addendum conflicts with that provided in the reference guidelines (BYE 28579/81), the guidance in this addendum is to be followed.

The DRSP activity "Mapping, Charting and Geodesy (MC&G) Support" involves various National Reconnaissance Program collection activities. Basic classification guidance for NRP systems is provided by the "NRO Classification Guide," BYE-13197/77.

Specific classification guidance regarding MC&G Support within DRSP follows:

| Subject | Classification |

DEFENSE RECONNAISSANCE SUPPORT PROGRAM (DRSP)
CLASSIFICATION GUIDELINES

SURVIVABLE AND ENDURING INTELLIGENCE SYSTEM (SEIS)

REFERENCE: DNRO Memo, Subject: Defense Reconnaissance Support Program (DRSP) Classification Guidelines, dated November 19, 1981 (BYE 28578/81) and Attachment, Subject: DRSP Security Guidelines (BYE 28579/81)

This addendum provides supplemental classification guidance for the DRSP activity "Survivable and Enduring Intelligence System (SEIS)." In those cases where the classification guidance provided in this addendum conflicts with that provided in the reference guidelines (BYE 28579/81), the guidance in this addendum is to be followed.

The DRSP activity "Survivable and Enduring Intelligence System (SEIS)" involves concept definition studies for a system which would supplement present and projected enduring intelligence and intelligence-related capabilities. Because reconnaissance satellites will be the primary means used for this collection, many of the details of this effort will remain within the BYEMAN system until a decision on system acquisition is reached. At that time, a decision will be rendered on the appropriate classification level for the program and a more detailed classification guide will be published.

Specific classification guidance regarding SEIS within the DRSP follows:

| Subject | Classification |
|---|-----------------------|
| The term "Survivable and Enduring Intelligence System" or acronym "SEIS." | Unclassified |

DEFENSE RECONNAISSANCE SUPPORT PROGRAM (DRSP)
CLASSIFICATION GUIDELINES
INTELLIGENCE COMMUNICATIONS ARCHITECTURE (INCA)

REFERENCE: DNRO Memo, Subject: Defense Reconnaissance Support Program (DRSP) Classification Guidelines, dated November 19, 1981 (BYE 28578/81) and Attachment, Subject: DRSP Security Guidelines (BYE 28579/81)

This addendum provides supplemental classification guidance for the DRSP activity "Intelligence Communications Architecture (INCA)." In those cases where the classification guidance provided in this addendum conflicts with that provided in the reference guidelines (BYE 28579/81), the guidance in this addendum is to be followed.

The DRSP activity "Intelligence Communications Architecture (INCA)" involves improving the tasking and dissemination architecture for satellite-derived signals intelligence (SIGINT) and imagery intelligence (IMINT) support to operational commands and forces. Basic classification guidance for National Reconnaissance Program systems involved in this activity is provided by the "NRO Classification Guide," BYE-13197/77.

Specific classification guidance regarding INCA activities within DRSP follows:

| Subject | Classification |
|---|-----------------------|
| The term "Intelligence Communications Architecture" or "INCA." | Unclassified |
| Identification of INCA as part of the DRSP or as part of program element 35159. | Unclassified * |

* Identification of INCA as part of the DRSP at the unclassified level is limited to the following statement: "Within the DRSP, the 'Intelligence Communications Architecture (INCA)' is a comprehensive program to improve the tasking and dissemination architecture for intelligence support to operational commands and forces. INCA includes a variety of activities to improve the timeliness, type, completeness and dependability of intelligence support provided to field units. It ties operational support capabilities together in a composite capability, improves them where possible, and promotes development of additional capabilities where needed."
